DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's amendment prompted the new rejection as stated below. It is noted that the device resulting from the language of claim 1 only requires a device formed on an upper substrate since the buffer layer, the adhesive layer and the air gaps are also removed when the temporary substrate is detached or removed from the upper substrate (see claim 1, last limitation: "... the temporary substrate and air gaps are removed from the upper substrate"). Therefore, the limitations about the buffer layer, the adhesive layer, the air gaps and the temporary substrate are not considered in the rejection below since the structure as claimed does not require the recited limitations.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

2. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on December 14, 2006 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 2815

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Simizu et al. (US 4041518).

Regarding claims 1 and 6, Simizu et al. teaches a MOS device (107) formed on a silicon substrate (100) [see fig. 1].

Regarding claims 2-5, the examiner does not consider these limitations since the structure, as claimed, does not require the recited limitations.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-6 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
